

---

Jim Story & Celeste Baker

at the Cornelia St. Café

Join us for an all-fiction, early-evening delight!

Wednesday, May 11 • 6-7:30pm

---

Jim will read from his next novel, The Condor's Shadow, that he's currently finishing, and from Problems of Translation, his recently published novel, called "An insanely amusing adventure that has a deep love of language" (Gary Shteyngart) and "a merry yearlong chase around the globe" (Kirkus Reviews). www.jimcstory.com

Celeste will read from Belly, Back, and Side, her recently published story collection ("heartache and hilarity...poetic, uncompromising prose"—D.J. Older; "tales of wisdom, wonderment, and new world lore"—S.R. Thomas), and her novel-in-progress about a saint who finds herself in the body of a Black woman 50 years hence. www.celesteritabaker.com

Come celebrate spring with us at this all-fiction event.

---

Cornelia St. Café • 29 Cornelia St., betw. Bleecker & West 4th Sts, on the West side of Avenue of the Americas: take the A, C, E, B, D, F or M to W. 4th St.; corneliastreetcafe.com, 212.989.9319, $9 cover (includes one house drink)

---